H1N1 flu vaccine is for Bloomington, Edina and Richfield residents who are:

- Ages 6 months through 24 years, whether or not they have a medical condition
- Ages 25 years through 64 years with a chronic medical condition
- Pregnant women
- Living with or caring for children under 6 months of age
- Working as a health care provider or as emergency medical services personnel

If you are coming to a clinic:

- Wear a short-sleeve shirt
- Bring insurance card if you have one (but there is no cost)
- Come with your child. Children under 18 years must have a parent or guardian present to get the vaccine.

There is a limited amount of vaccine available for these clinics. No appointments are needed. There is no cost for the vaccine.

Save time at the clinic and fill out the consent form in advance! Forms are available on your child's school district website and Bloomington Public Health website at www.ci.bloomington.mn.us.

For questions, call Bloomington Public Health at 952-563-8787 x2435.
