RI12-00000300

On 02/03/12 at 1544 hours, I took a report at the counter from victim who stated he received paperwork from IRS stating he owed $1600 in taxes for 2007. He stated he was 15 years old at the time and did not work that year. The IRS suggested that someone may have used his Social Security number, but details were missing. Victim was not able to give me dates the suspect worked or where he worked, the city or the employer. I advised him those were important details and we would probably not look into it if the employer was in a different state. I gave him a case number and encouraged him to gather more information and call us with that. Victim had not done any credit checks so it is unknown if there are any other identity theft issues.
