Charter Commission

The Charter Commission is responsible for the continuing study of the Richfield Charter and government. The Commission consists of 15 regular members who serve four-year terms. The members are appointed by the Chief Judge of the Hennepin County District Court.

The Commission has an annual meeting the second week in January, and in addition, meets intermittently throughout the year as required.

Participation on the Richfield Charter Commission represents an excellent opportunity for interested citizens to become actively involved in their City government.

In order to be qualified for serving on this commission, you must be a resident of Richfield, and more important, you must have an interest in serving your community.

In order to provide the Hennepin County Chief Judge with a better understanding of your background, please complete this application for service on the Charter Commission and direct it to the Chief Judge of the Hennepin County District Court, Hennepin County Government Center.

If you have questions regarding the status of your appointment, please contact the Richfield City Manager's office at 612-861-9701.
